HELENA, Mont. August 5.—The city of Spo-kane Falls, W. T., was burned to the ground by the fire which started last night. Details of the destruction were hard to obtain this mornthe city came through the Western Union telegraph office in Spokane as having been swept out of existence. Every effort was being made, they stated, to restore communication, but when success would be attained they could not say.

FORTY BLOCKS BURNED.

Later information showed that forty business blocks had fallen prey to the flames. It was definitely ascertained that the Northern Pacific depot and all the public buildings in the city were carried away in the general havoo. The first estimate received placed the Spokane was one of the most prominent of the many new cities in the infant State of Washington. Situated on the line of the Northern Pacific Ballroad, close to the Court d'Alene mining region, the city has been the site for many large industrial establishments, such as smelters and kindred enterprises. Expensive public edifices had also been recently erected and the population was easily supporting two prosperous daily papers.
THE BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

The business district of Spokane was in tracks and the Spokane River. This strip was five squares across and extended about seven squares in length. It was solidly built up which varied from $25,000 to $125,000.
Ten banking houses, five hotels, the opera-house and many wholesale establishments doing a business estimated at haif a million dollars each were situated within the district described. The estimate of $30,000,000 loss is believed here to be exaggerated. Half that amount is thought to be nearer the actual figures, assuming that the reported complete destruction of the city is correct. The population of Spokane was about $20,000. The city possessed an excellent water works, modelled after the Holley which varied from $25,000 to $125,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 5.—It was stated some time ago that the official trial of the new steel cruiser Baltimore would take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could take place in July but it is now could be proparated. There were no fire engines, but by the system in use five or six good-sized streams of water could be concentrated upon any block in case of fire. The fire Department was a volunteer one. THE CHIEF LOSSES.

The chief losses, as nearly as can be inferred from the reports that have reached here, were as follows: Holley, Mason Marks & Co., wholesale hardware, $125,000 the Great Eastern wholesale and retail dry goods house, $100,000; the White House, wholesale dry goods house, $80,000; Lowenburg Bros., $100,000; Benham & Griffith, whole sale grocers, $40,000; Mason, Smith & Co., grocers, $40,000; Pacific Hotel, $40,000; Grand $75,000; Washington block, $65,000; Crescent, $30,000; Cannon block, $20,000; Moore block, $30,000; First National Bank block, $25,000;

Wolverton block, $25,000; Frankfort block. $125,000; Tull block, $75,000. All Communications Cut Off.

PORTLAND, Ore., August 5 .- All connection with Spokane Falls was lost at 7 last evening.
All known is that the Northern Pacific depot, two blocks north, had then burned and the Pacific Hotel and another block were quiries for information are coming from all directions. Everything is being done that is possible towards getting connection.

The fire at Spokane Fails started in the large frame block opposite the Northern Pacific Depot, and under the influence of high winds, which scattered burning embers and started fires in a haif dozen different blocks a once, the whole district was purned over in three hours. The water supply proved to-tally inadequte even for a small fire, and firemen, as well as eltizens, became panic-stricken. Loss of LIFE.

Several people are known to have perished in the flames and several more were injured by leaping from windows. Charies Davis of Chicago, a guest at the Arlington House, was awakened by flames burning through the door of his room in the third story. He jumped from the window, was shockingly mangled and died in a few minutes. A woman whose name is unknown, leaped from the Second story of the hotel and was killed. The fire spread with such astonishing rapidity that it story of the nosel and was kined. The fire spread with such astonishing rapidity that it is believed many were shut off from escape before they were even aware of their danger. A dozen large buildings were blown up with giant powder by the orders of the Mayor, but every-efforts proved futile. The Morthern Paosific is probably the heaviest loser; the passenger depot and magnificent freight house were destroyed. Their loss, including freight burned, will reach about $1,000,000.

OALLA YOR HELT.

All provisions and supplies were burned, and there will necessarily be much suffering for several days. A call for help has been sent out, and Seattle and Tacoma and several neighboring small towns have already responded. This disaster is undoabtedly as great as overtook Seattle, both on account of its great extent and the character of the burned buildings. No account of the loss has yet been received. The Western Union office was burned out, and all instruments destroyed except one, which an operator is now working on a dry goods box just outside the city. Washinoton, D. C., August 5.—The Fresident and Secretary Windom had a talk about the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics appointments. The free exhaused itself at the rives for lack of material. All the flour and lumber for lack of material. All the flour and lumber the lack of the loss some days ago, is not known. But the the is no doubt. Again disappoint in the sum of 500 to appearance before the Grand-Jury and Oriminal Court.

Much comment has been excited here by the extraordinary series which has been formed by conflagrations in Washington. First came the fearful disaster to Seattle, the chief city of the new State. From Seattle in the west it seems as if the fire had gone directly west, for Ellenburg, a flourishing inland city, was nearly destroyed within the past fortnight. Now Spokane, which, next to Seattle was the first city in the State, suffers a terrible disaster.

Meager Information.

St. PAUL, Minn., August 5.—But little can be learned here regarding the Spokane Falls fire. All Western Union and Northern Pacific Railroad wires are down and not much prospect of having one soon. The General Manager of the Northern Pacific has the following dis-patch, timed 2 a. m., which is the latest word they have received from the burning city:

evening, spreading rapidly through the business portion of the city, and has already destroyed twenty-one of the finest blocks, including the Northern Pacific Depot, hotels, etc. The fire is still raging fiercely on the North Side, and it is impossible to form any estimate of what the losses will be. So far as known no lives have been lost."

A Brewery Scorched. CINCINNATI, O., August 5.—Fire broke out this morning in Lackman's brewery from some unknown cause, and before it was ex-tinguished it caused a loss of about $40,000. Fully insured. The flames did their greatest damage in the ice-house and wagon-sheds. The ice machinery is entirely ruined. The stairway to the mait-house caught fire, but the mait-house was saved. The horses were safely removed from the stables. There was a special insurance of $25,000 on the ice machinery.

gold miners. There are as he says, few gold properties, except placers, which do not produce sliver, to a greater or less extent, and many which produce it in very appreciable quantities. For this reason the depreciation of the price of sliver very seriously affects the gold mining industry. As an illustration, figures are shown which give Lake County's product of sliver at $105,000,000,000, while she at the same time produced $10,000,000 of gold. Glipin County, with a product of $44,000,000 in gold, is credited with $12,000,000 of sliver, showing how important it is to gold miners to maintain the value of sliver, as the sliver product very often figures materially in the footing up of the profits.

Baron de Pardonnet, the well-known lawyer attached to the French and time, he has found that the people of St.

Louis are unanimous in their sentiments on the subject. Mr. Egan leaves for Colorado tomorrow morning, and the assurances referred to were given him in order that he might discuss the enterprise on a solid basis with the representatives of the mining interests in that State. At Denver he will place the matter before the new Mining and Stock Exchange of which he was one of the incorporators. The Exchange will, he anticipates, render a great deal of valuable assistance. He will also devote some time to it in the principal mining districts for the purpose of placing the matter before Secretary Blaine and he has seen the convention is to be for the carnest discussion of all questions for the promotion and protection of the general mining industry "Thave, indeed, 10% to just fold his story in a quiet, gentlemanly way." "The great features of the mining districts gold, silver, copper, lead, etc.," said Mr. morning. "We have iron and coal deposits of equal in extent and value to any found in the United States. At Colorado Springs we have a large Bessemer steel plant in active operation, a fact of which but few people in the East have any knowledge. The oil fields of Colorado and Wyoming are already being extensively worked, with large refineries at the contract a pipeline to Deaver. In Wyoming we have very fine sait, and very extensive salgoda interests. If the rail were yetensive salgoda interests. If the rail pound of this would be sent to St. Louis for manufacture into products which we now import. We could, in fact, furnish a supply to entirely displace the imported article. The only trouble in that section is the character of the labor employed. It is generally of a higher only trouble in that section is the character of the labor employed. They live well, however, and appear on the streets when not working dressed as a neatly as the business men of an old city like $5 t. Louis. You would be surprised if you could see them, and if you did not know what they were you would hardly believe it if any miners. ALL THAT IS NECESSARY, as Senator Newell believes, to make the agitation a snecess, is to get before the people in the proper shape, and that can be best done by such a convention as has been proposed by the Post-Disparch. The people, he says, need not be afraid that the country will be flooded with sliver by an increase of its value. All they want is to realize the full amount of the labor and capital required to develop mining properties, and that in proportion to the new camps opened up, old ones become exhausted. As for instance, at one time Nevada was producing millions, while Colorado could foot up only thousands. The positions are changed now. Nevada's product is confined to a small amount, while Colorado frunning up into the millions. No one knows this better than the miners, and as they desire that it also be known to the people generally, and that the public view of mining questions be cleared away, and the fallacy of the arguments of the lending power be shown, the miners will attend in large numbers any convention called on a business-like basis. Senator Newell will give the convention enterprise all the assistance possible in the mining sections.

DEAR Sin-We respectfully invite your attention to the inclosed account of the proceedings of a citizens' meeting held in this city on Saturday, August S, for the purpose of taking the initial steps toward inducing Congress to locate the World's Fair of 1892 in St. Louis. The dominant feeling at that meeting, which found expression in the remarks of many speakers, was that this is a matter in which the people of Missouri are quite as deeply interested as the people of St. Louis and our committee was instructed to open negotiations at the earliest practicable moment with the other municipalities of the State, with a view to securing that concert of action which it is believed will lead to success.

Acting upon our instructions, we have the honor to request that you call a meeting of representative day and Auxiliary Committee purpose of organizing as an Auxiliary Committee impowered to voice the sentiments of your people.

Respectfully requesting an acknowledgment of this communication, together with some expression of your views on the subject, we have the honor to be your obedient servants.

HOW THE REPUBLICAN PARTY MANAGERS CONFIDENCED THE COLORED VOTERS.

They Were Promised a Large Share of the Spoils and Polled 13,000 Votes—Ten Petty Places Given Them as a Reward

Such was the greet his audience at a col ion meeting held at Central Turner Hall on the eve of the November election.
The colored leaders

Just before the November election a large colored vote was registered. For days before the closing date for registrations the line of colored men extended from the desks in the flice of the Recorder of Voters out to Chestnut street. Lookouts were stationed at the Uity Hall, with instructions to stop every colored pedestrian and teamster who could be induced to register or transfer at the main office. They asked no questions as to politics, taking it for granted that Chairman John McFall of the Republican City Committee was correct in his estimate that not more than one Democratic negro in fifty would be registered by the Republican runners if they took every colored man they met. At the same time furniture wagons were almost hourly depositing loads of colored men at the City Hall. In the precincts of the First, Second, Third, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Iwenty-first and Twenty-eighth Wards, where the colored population is in the majority, the increase of the registered vote was surprisngly large. into clubs and the Fresidents of clubs organized as a Council of Presidents.

THE STRENGTH OF THE VOTE

was shown at the turn-out just before the November election. Their organization was preserved, after the November victory, for the municipal campaign, when, however, the victory was not so complete. George W. Bryant, who possed as the leader of the colored Republicans, repeatedly asserted the claim that the colored wing of the party in St. Louis had polled 18,000 votes in November, when a Republican Sheriff, three Republican Congressmen, three Circuit Judgs, a Circuit and Assistant Circuit Attorney, a Coroner and Public Administrator were elected. The Republican endidates not only promised to reward the loyalty of the colored brothers, but the Republican incumbents previously elected to office, in a burst of gratitude pledged themselves to reward such party fidelity. They had been tried. A plan to buy a heavy negro vote for certain candidates on the opposing ticket fell through, although the preliminary moeting was held at Fourteenth street and Clark avenue and a purse of $2,000 was raised for the purpose.

As describing the treatment of the colored Republicans it may be said that they "got soup." They certainly have succeed in getting very few of the many good places promised them. PREPARED BY COLORED MEN.

There were no rival candidates and the colored wing of the party united in urging Dr. Schaeffer for the place, which pays $1,800 per annum. Their candidate failed. Dr. Frank appointed Filley's protege E. H. Dunbar, whose action in the Georgie Knapp case at the St. James Hotel lead to his resignation. The colored voters proposed to make another effort to get the office, but the Coroner decided to appoint Andrew F. Brown, who it was claimed was a Greenbacker and who only three years ago occupied a delagate's chair in the Democratic City Con-

the position of Assistant Superintendent of the Morgue, for which there was not much competition, to Philip Pitzer. The place is not a pleasant one and pays only $50 per month. The other places in the Coroner's office are the Deputy Coroner, paying $150 per month. Celerk paying $150 per month. The colored voters got a very small slice out of the Coroner's office.

In the office of the Recorder of Deeds there are over thirty good places, but the best the Republican head of that branch of the service could do for the numerous colored applicants for office was to give two places as copyists to James F. Bradley and Robert Hickman, where they earn 5 cents for each 100 words.

Two deputyships in this office pay $1,500 per annum each; three comparers' places pay $50 per month and a delivery clerk $75.

Judges Fisher is the only one of the judges who has appointed a colored Republican. He has selected Nobie Zims for janitor in his court-room. In this connection a little history concerning the right to appoint instors may not be uninteresting. When Wm. L. Ewing was Mayor he proposed to give all the positions as janitors at the Four Courts to colored Republicans, though no such claim was made as to the importance of the vote at that time. In the Criminal Court, presided over by Judge Van Waggoner, there was a Democratic janitor who gave satisfaction and whose retention was urged by all the officers of the court, Republican and Democratic. The Republican interfered with and insisted on removing the incumbent to make room for a colored Republican. The question was taken into the courts and the law is now settled that the Judges of the Circuit Courts and not the Commissioner of Public Buildings or the Mayor has the right to appoint court janitors. The Judges elected last November, with the exception named, are apparently not so anxious to

THE APPRENTICE SYSTEM.

In reference to the questions to be considered and the objects to be accomplished, President Katz said: "The National Trades

Assembly, No. 231, represents about 18 considering the c semblies scattered all over the country, the great bulk of the members being in the East. Our policy has always been to allow only a small proportionate representation, and I believe that not more than fifty delegates will be present to-morrow norning when the real work of the conven-possible that we may adjourn at a later date.

"As to the subjects to be considered, they will be two in number. First in importance is the apprentice system. St. Louis is behind the rest of the country in this matter, as it is in several others connected with the clothing trade. In the beginning I wish to say that the object of the apprentice system is not to increase wages or limit the number of men engaged in the business, but to raise the standard of work.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

gaged in the business, but to raise the standard of work.

"No apprentice can do good work unless he has had three years' training, and during his apprenticeship he requires a great deal of instruction. For these reasons we have adopted a system which allows an apprentice to every ten men once in three years. This is not inflexible, as we can increase the number at any time if it is deemed best, but no man should set up as a cutter and trimmer until he has served three years. This is as much for the benefit of the manufacturer as for our own, as the system has been found to produce far better workmen than the haphazard style of apprenticeship formerly in vogue. The question of hours will be next in importance. We have established the nine-hour system throughout the East, and there is no reason why it should not be in operation here. It is not, nor is the apprentice system, and this was one of the reasons that induced us to hold the present meeting in St. Louis."

A Boston paper is challenged by Secre tary BLAINE to indicate the occasion, official or unofficial, where he has asserted that Behring Sea is distinctly American water. He further says that everything done on the fur seal question since the 4th of March was in literal compliance with the act of Congress approved by President CLEVELAND on the last day of his term.

The truth is that both the act of Con gress and President HARRISON's proclamstion, issued in compliance therewith, carefully abstain from any distinct assertion of the jurisdiction of the United States over Behring Sea beyond the marine league limit. The act orders the enforcement of our rights acquired under the Russian treaty ceding Alaska and the seal islands to us, but does not define those rights as including jurisdiction beyond the three-mile limit. The proclamation merely gives warning that the act will be enforced, and does not give warning that the act will be interpreted as claiming that Russia had conveyed to us an extraordinary marine jurisdiction which our own and other governments had denied Russia's possession of or right to convey to anybody.

Even the revised statutes regulating the taking of fur-seal relate only to "American waters," and no statute authorizes our revenue cutters to apply the mare clausum doctrine to Behring Sea and enforce our sealing regulations in its waters by capturing British sealers seventy miles from land. The naval officers who are doing this thing are assuming the responsibility on a hint from of Saturday will be chosen Wednesday. THE commission of train robberies almost simultaneously in Missouri and Texas can hardly be taken as corroborative evidence of the truth of the statement that the ghost of JESSE JAMES has been seen in the West, or that other story that the bold bandit is still alive. It is only significant of the fact that the law less spirit of the James and Younger boys is still abroad in the land, and needs some more vigorous treatment from the authorities to be finally laid.

Ex-Gov. WM. Eugene Hale, member of the Senate Commitsaid that the committee did not take testi- the river about thirty-five miles, and remony upon the Behring Sea question while on the Pacific Coast. He said: "The committee felt that the subject was immediately in the quite a hero among his companions. About hands of the State Department and is likely to be the subject matter of negotiation with the Foreign Office of the British Government. For this reason, though the subject is peculiarly with-in the scope of the work of the committee, it was not deemed advisable to open the question in advance of any negotia-

out one man was put aboard her from the Rush?"

"No," said Mr. Wharton, "I have not seen that statement and have no means of knowing that it is true or false."

Continuing, Mr. Wharton said: "This whole matter of the seizure of these vessels, so far as it has gone, is under the control and direction of the Treasury Department. If there is any blame attaching to these seizures it must be laid at the doors of Congress. It passed a law directing the President to issue his proclamation extending to the American waters in Behring foa the same protection over the seal and fur bearing animals as is accorded the fur-bearing inhabitants of Alaska and the waters thereof

The train had just left Harlem, the first station out from Kansas City, when two men with handkerchiefs tied over the lower part of their faces marched to the rear end of the last car. Then they began their operations in a very cool and methodical manner. One covered the passengers with a revolver while the other took each in turn and resilved them of whatever he could find worth taking. The last car, the Des Moines sleeper, had in it about six passengers. The next one, the 8t. Paul sleeper, had in it about eight. These two netted the robbers about $175$. WALTON, Ky., August b .- Bucktown, ored suburb, is red with gore this morning, as the result of a colored dance. Crittender another colored suburb and is always at war to the knife with Bucktown. Saturday night with a banjo player and blind fiddler as an orchestra. Five men and three women attended from Crittenden, but all went well until about 2 o'clock yesterday morning when Mica Williams of Crittenden and a negro woman named Mitchell got into a fracas and drew razors. Both slashed each other unmercifully, and it was the signal for the slaughter to begin. The Crittenden crowd pitched in with knives, pistols and revolvers and the war wont on for half an hour, when no one in the house was in an upright position. Physicians and several citizens called in and found five negroes fatally wounded, two dead and eight others badly cut. The floor was covered with blood. Trails of blood led in every direction from the house, showing the wounded had made their way home and were perhaps fatally hurt. The blind fiddler was gone, but the banjo player, dying with three bulles holes in his body and drunk and insensible to pain, sat thumbing his banjo and laughing at the weird scene around him. estra. You can say that there is a serious epidemic of bloody flux in Warsaw. I don't know when it will end."

Dr. Jonkins of Keckuk was seen last night and said "There is a serious epidemic of bloody flux in Warsaw. The disease has appeared here. It is reported I have said that if atmospheric conditions did not change within a twenty-four hours Warsaw would be visited with Asiatic cholera. I did not say that excity, and I think there is no canse for general alarm yet."

He was taken back to Mr. Belmont to start three each, or even more, cannot be denied, if they choose to pay the starting stake of $250 each. It is to be hoped, however, that thew won't do so. For it is safe to say that each of the gentlemen named will have a better chance of winning it relying on the best of his string than by crowding the field with a risk of being ent. number of starters is likely to be more than the rails in that quarter of a mile is always severe. But whatever number starts it is to be honed that Col. Simmons will have a patro judge just behind the Ocean Port Depot and another at the turn into the home stretch.

BUFFALO TROTTING MEETING.
The trotters on the grand circuit will this week be in Buffalo. That city was the birth-place of the Grand Circuit meetings, and each annual meeting has invariably been marked by some event that becomes a red letter to one in the annals of trotting. The event for the current meeting is the match for $10,000 to be trotted on Thursday afternoon between C. J. Hamiin's bay mare, Belle Hamiin, and the Sire Bros.' bay gelding, Harry Wilkes. The conditions are $2,500 each, with $5,000 added by the Buffalo Association, of which 60 per cent goes to the winner and 40 per cent goes to the winner and 40 per cent goes to the betting features of the rece is that the best time ever made in a race—viz: 2:13½ by Maud S., in her race at Chicago in 1880, against Trinket—will be beaten. There is also some betting that without a "dead heat" there will be three heats. The programme is made up very much on the same lines as those at Detroit and Cleveland. But the "star" feature of the first day will be the appearance of the wonderful 5-year-old Axtell in the race for the 2:22 class. At Cleveland last week this speedy youngster reduced the 3-year-old record to 2:144. If he can repeat that performance at Buffalo, the chances are that there will be one heat, "Axtell first, the others distanced."

If the Dwyers' present bad luck continues these shining lights of the turf may forsake ick headache is the bane of many lives; to it. It was reported about a year ago, it will be remembered, that they were seriously conit. It was reported about a year ago, it will be remembered, that they were seriously considering such a step, but their big purchases of yearlings shortly after this rumor had been set in circulation, proved that it was either groundless, or at least that they had determined to be king-pins for a while longer at least. Their investments in young horses have not, however, proved very profitable. Their luck in securing great racers in their infancy seems to have partly at least deserted them. Not only that, but the good ones they own have not been in the best form during the season. Moreover, while their luck with their stables has not been as good as in former years their judgment in betting has been far worse. The telegraph has contained a good deal of information recently about their blunders in betting, the latest being to the effect that they dropped $40,000 at Saratoga Saturday. They backed Murphy's mounts in four races and the colored Archer did not get under the wire first in any event. Their bad luck would have completely broken up many other turfmen, but probably they are able to stand it. Blackburn, who was thought to be their principal entry for the Junior Champion Stakes, to be run to-morrow, is reported to have gone backward in form and it is said that the Brooklyn turfmen will send June Day to Monmouth to compete for the big stakes. June Day, it is stated, defeated Blackburn in a trial, but there are few who think that the cost, promising an he undoubtedly is can, land, the great prize from such competitors as he will have. THE JUNIOR CHAMPION.

He lost a few thousand backing a book at the Brooklyn Spring Meeting, fell down with the Brooklyn Spring Meeting, fell down with the rank and file at Jerome, caught some costly facers at Sheepshead, and did little but lose facers at Sheepshead, and did little but lose the first fortnight at Monmouth. To-day he is ahead of the year's play, thanks to the breadwinning horses of the Pulsifer and Haggin stables. Yesterday's Games. The Brooklyns secured another victory ove

the Browns yesterday at Ridgewood Park, and they are now but a few points behind the champions. Another victory for them, and a defeat for the Browns will place them in the lead in the race. The contest for the pennant between these two clubs is now becoming intensely interesting to the lovers of the national game. This fact was attested by the immense crowd which witnessed yesterday's game. The turnstile count was 16.974. Every immense crowd which witnessed yesterday's game. The turnstile count was 16,974. Every inch of space, excepting that necessary for the game was occupied. The exhibition was not a particularly brilliant one, judging from the score, but it was most interesting on account of the effect the result would have on the standing of the clubs. The final score was 7 to 2 in favor of the Brooklys. The Browns' defeat was probably due more to their inability to hit Caruthers' pitching than to any other cause. They were only able to secure three hits off his delivery. Capt. Comiskey made two and the other is to Duffee's credit. King pitched for the Browns and did not do badly by any means. The Brooklyns secured but seven hits off him, but unfertunately for the Browns these hits were forthcoming at opportune times. The summary of the game is as follows: Base hits—Brooklyns, 7; St. Louis, 3. Errors—Brooklyns, 5; St. Louis, 6. Batteries—King and Boyle; Caruthers and Visner.

The Kansas Citys lost a game to Columbus on the latter's grounds yesterday through a wild throw of Davis in the ninth inning, three men crossing the plate before the ball was returned to the diamond. The score was—Columbus, 6; Kansas Citys. 4 Base hits—Kansas City, 9; on the latter's grounds yesterday through a wild throw of Davis in the ninth inning, three men crossing the plate before the ball was returned to the diamond. The score was—Columbus, 6; Kensas Citys, 4. Base hits—Kansas Citys, 4; Columbus, 7. Errors—Kansas Citys, 4; Columbus, 2. Batteries—Conway and Hoover, and Gasbright and Kemmier.

Ewing pitched a magnificant game for the Louisvilles yesterday at Philadelphia and as a result the Athletics were shut out. The score was—Louisvilles, 13; Athletics, 0. Base hits—Louisvilles, 13; Athletics, 3. Errors—Athletics, 1; Louisvilles, 2. Batteries—Ewing and Vaughn, McMahon and Robinson.

more or less honey, and until recently had almost a monopoly from the section of Iowa in which I own a small farm.
But during the last three years a great number of farmers have entered into the bushoney produced in Southern Iows as in former port and Des Moines has dropped fully 30 per cent. The same is true, although in a lesser degree, of Central and Western Illinois and also of Missouri. Where five years ago there was one hive in Illinois, which always was a large honey-producing State, there are now three, and there must be at least five in Missouri where one stood before. Few farmers considered as a sort of bye product, but in the linois crop alone must sell for nearly $1,000,- steadily and rapidly gaining. "To grow honey successfully not a few tricks of the trade must be learned, the most important being how to play successfully a sort of confidence game on the bees. The old 'henpersuader' device, consisting of a nest with a trap-door, which opened as soon as an egg was laid, inducing the unsowith a trap-door, which opened as soon as an egg was laid, inducing the unsophisticated fowl to believe that its attempt had been vain, and persuading it to continue its industry, was admirable in theory, but it may be doubted whether it ever was crowned with success in practice. A similar deception is, however, applied with the best results to the bees. They will not lay up more than enough honey to carry them through the winter, and as soon as this is accumulated will stop work. It, therefore, becomes necessary systemetematically to rob the hives, and keep the workers busy all the time. In this line the Americans excel the world. The old-fashioned conical straw beehive, portrayed in paintings and engravings, although used all over Europe, is scarcely ever seen in this country. Its place is taken by the square wooden hive, generally containing a number of boxes about ains lockes square, which can be slipped out at will. One method of operation is to have the hive divided into two compartments, the upper open to the bees and the lower partially filled, those in the lower part of the hive are substituted, and allowed to remain until filled. They are then taken out, and the partially filled boxes substituted.

The bees, seeing the unfilled cell, go to practice. An inventor has lately undertaken to make comb of zinc, and I understand that this plan is meeting with great success. I was struck by the remark of a couple of Texas farmers who looked at some of the honey on exhibition at the St. Louis Fair last year. They were looking at a box containing moided comb, and one said to the other: "This must be a tricky place. No durned bee ever made that honey." One reason that bottled honey is so much more common than in former years is due to the system of draining the comb and remodeling the wax.

"Nearly all our Western honey is made from red-top clover. It does not take nearly so long to fill a hive from the red clover fields as from flowers or the small white clover. The large white top clover is considered by many to make the finest honey, but the supply is not large. California spring honey, which commands a fancy price because it is less sweet and cloying, is gathered principally from the wild flowers hat cover the Sierra foothilis at that season. Not only does the United States now supply its own wants, but exports a large amount every year." EYE GLASSES adjusted by practical opti-

The last performance of "Dorothy" was given to a large audience at the Cave last night. The pretty opera seemed as popular night. The pretty opera seemed as popular as ever and there were numerous encores and one curtain call. To-night the Carleton Opera Co. will sing "Amorita," one of Caibulka's most charming compositions. The opera is well cast and has been thoroughly rehearsed. "The Brigands" begins its second week at Schasider's to-night. The opera is running amountly and the company is giving a very nice and entertaining production. There are some excellent things in the opera and they are making it popular.

Pain's "Siege of Sebastopol" will be given for a second time to-morrow evening. The Saturday night production was a big success. "Sebastopol" is much more magnificent than "Pompeli" and the entertainment is much more interesting.
